A Note from Pastor Matt Ward:

"I thank my God upon every remembrance of you..."
- Philippians 1:3

There may not be a more worthwhile challenge than pouring yourself into the Scriptures. We are told to eat the Scriptures, hide the Word in our hearts, and to be armed with the Word of God among many other Biblical challenges. If this reading plan pushes your comfort zone a bit - that may be the best thing for you.

Now I'm away for the rest of the year - but I intend to read this exact same plan while I'm gone. If you want to be an encouragement to me - be a pen pal - shoot me an email to let me know what God is opening up to you during your time in His Word. (chaplainward120@yahoo.com)

To be honest, you can be that same encouragement to someone who is much more local. The same thing you might send across the world to encourage a soldier might also encourage your neighbor across the street - or your kids in the next room - or even your spouse right next to you. As you read, soak up the light of Christ, and then shine His light!

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Matthew 5:16
